Dear USA Philatelic Customer:

Welcome to the Fall 2000 edition of USA Philatelic, your official source for current U.S. stamps and stamp products. In this issue, imagination and innovation come together to create a world of stamps that knows no bounds. We promise you've never seen anything like these new issues before.

Innovation takes many forms—and so do the Space Achievement and Exploration stamps. You'll be dazzled by circles, pentagons, and even holograms—some the first in U.S. history. This brilliant collection of stamps is revolutionary in both subject and design. And the Uncut Press Sheet is the first time five souvenir sheets are printed on the same press run. That's four philatelic firsts on one sheet. Order yours now before they're officially issued at World Stamp Expo 2000, July 7-13.

Imagination shapes the future of stamps with the Stampin' The Future™ pane of 20. Thousands of children shared their visions of the 21st century for this worldwide contest. Now the winning art is issued on four vivid stamps. Impressed by many of the remaining entries, we've featured some extraordinary artwork from other young finalists, as well. Look for their amazing illustrations throughout this edition of USA Philatelic.

Pushing the limits of human will and strength, the men featured in the Legends of Baseball pane were the first to set major league records—and then break them. Featuring 20 nominees for Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, this beautifully crafted sheet is being issued on July 6 in conjunction with this year's All-Star Game festivities.

We continue our journey into a new frontier with the California Statehood stamp, commemorating the 150th anniversary of the "golden" state's annexation. And Florida Congressman Claude Pepper is honored on a stamp for his tireless efforts to improve the quality of life for America's elderly population.

Please remember that we have postponed issuing the 2000 holiday designs. We will instead reissue our four 1999 holiday stamps: the Holiday Traditional, Holiday Contemporary and Hanukkah and Kwanzaa designs. So you can enjoy these festive works of art for one more season.

To add any of these impressive stamps to your collection, simply fill out and return the enclosed order form. Or you can call 1 800 STAMP-24 (1-800-782-6724), fax us at 816-545-1212 or visit us online at www.stampsonline.com. Whichever method you choose, we'll be happy to fill your order right away.

We look forward to entering this new dimension in stamp design with you, and to continue exploring exciting and uncharted territory.

Sincerely,

James C. Tolbert, Jr.

You are about to enter a NEW DIMENSION in stamp design.

The U.S. Postal Service continues to explore the unknown—in stamps. The Space Achievement and Exploration stamps are the first-ever circular, hologram and pentagonal postage stamps in U.S. history. Saluting shining moments in our space program, these exciting new issues give new shape to the future of stamp design.

A Space Achievement and Exploration

This $11.75 postage stamp is the first circular, hologram stamp ever issued by the U.S. Postal Service. It features an extraordinary holographic image of the Earth.

B Exploring the Solar System

Another precedent—the first pentagonal postage stamps ever issued by the U.S. Postal Service. The five $1 Exploring the Solar System stamps required special perforating dies to create their innovative shape.

Shown at 35%

D Landing on the Moon

Commemorating the Apollo program that landed the first man on the moon, this stamp's selva reproduces a photograph taken during the Apollo 16 mission. And check out the lunar lander—it's a hologram!

ESCAPING THE GRAVITY OF EARTH

Shown at 55%

C Escaping the Gravity of Earth

Celebrating years of successful launches into Earth's orbit, these two $3.20 postage stamps feature holograms of space welders and the International Space Station.

Shown at 35%

E Probing the Vastness of Space

These six international-rate stamps honor the role of observatories and telescopes in the American space program.

Experience the splendor of SPACE and four philatelic firsts—all on one press sheet.

The Space Achievement and Exploration Uncut Press Sheet marks the first time five different souvenir sheets have been printed on the same press run. That's four precedent-setting techniques on the same press sheet! Order now to receive your piece of philatelic history.

NEW ISSUES

AND THE WINNERS ARE...

The votes are in—and the young artists and their winning illustrations will be officially recognized on July 13th at World Stamp Expo 2000 in Anaheim, California.

The challenge: Envision the 21st century for the U.S. Postal Service Stampin' The Future contest. The reply: 120,000 entries from schoolchildren all over the U.S.—and from 27 other countries like Canada, China, Israel and France. It was up to the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee to sort through the galaxy of dazzling illustrations. From 110 talented finalists, four winners were carefully selected. Their artwork will be featured on some 50 million stamps issued at World Stamp Expo 2000. Here's more about these gifted young artists.

KIDS IN SPACE

Zachary Canter, age 10,
from Kailua, Hawaii

"Art will always be a part of my life," declares Zachary—and it's no surprise. His grandfather, Saul Mandel, illustrated 1986's "puppy" Love stamp. Zach also says he wouldn't mind being a professional baseball player or an actor when he grows up. "At school, I'm known as an expressive personality," he adds.

PUPPY FROM MARS

Ashley Young, age 12,
of Sandy, Utah

Ashley thought the timing was perfect. She was studying space in school, and she and her three younger sisters had just asked their parents for a dog. Their answer: "Not until we have a fence." Ashley still doesn't have a fence or a dog, but now she can share her love for animals with people all across the country.

BOW WOW

RED ROCKET HOME

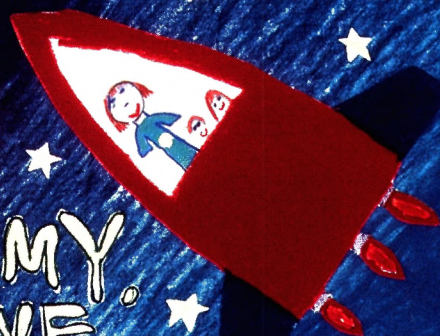

Morgan Hill, age 10,
of Montclair, New Jersey

Morgan was so excited when she received a letter telling her that she had won. She and her friends are planning to celebrate in a big way. "I told half my block, and they think we should have a block party!"

MOMMY,

SEND LOVE AROUND THE WORLD

Sarah Lipsey, age 12,
from Memphis, Tennessee

"The best part about winning is becoming friends with the other winners," Sarah says. Ever since they found out that they had won, Sarah and the other winners have been exchanging local newspaper articles and sending each other souvenirs from their hometowns. What a great way to spread Sarah's message of love around the world!

A Legends of Baseball Matted Pane

Now you can enjoy the players as if you were right in the stands. Includes 20 large portraits of the baseball greats in action. See Cy Young blowing one by the plate, the Babe hitting one out of the park or Jackie Robinson driving in yet another run. An avid fan of Major League Baseball, illustrator Joseph Saffold captures the thrill of the pennant race in each player's expression.

Joseph Saffold has more in common with Ty Cobb than just his love of the game—they were both born and bred in Georgia: Cobb, the "Georgia Peach" of the Detroit Tigers and Saffold, a Savannah, Georgia native and successful artist-illustrator in Atlanta. Saffold also worked for the Atlanta Braves, although not in the batter's box. He created posters for the team.

A Legends of Baseball Pane

A roster of some of the best heavy-hitters and fireballers in baseball history, this commemorative pane of 20 presents each player's career record on the back of the liner.

MICKY COCHRANE

Mickey Cochrane sparked the Philadelphia Athletics' championship teams of 1929–1931 with his potent bat, skill behind the plate, and fierce, competitive spirit.

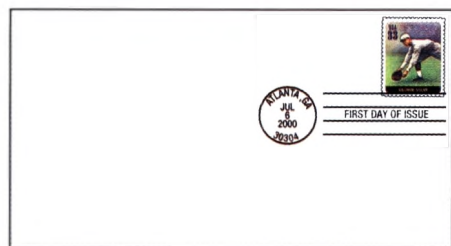

EDDIE COLLINS

Eddie "Cocky" Collins played the game of baseball for 25 seasons, a 20th-century record for nonpitchers. His brilliant baserunning and batting helped four teams win World Championships.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON

In 1901, 21-year-old Christy Mathewson won 20 games for the New York Giants. With his "fadeaway" pitch, he posted three consecutive 30-victory seasons and in the 1905 World Series threw three shutouts in only six days.

B California Statehood

Eureka! California became the 31st state in 1850—two years after settlers struck gold at Sutter's Mill near Sacramento. Featuring his photograph of the majestic cliffs of Big Sur, photographer Art Wolfe captures the dreamlike beauty of California's coastal environment.

C Claude Pepper

On the 100th anniversary of his birth, this champion of elderly rights is commemorated on a stamp. Boasting a 60-year career in civil service, Claude Pepper served in both the U.S. Senate and the House of Representatives, where he was chairman of the House Select Committee on Aging. From a photograph by Yosef Karsh, artist Mark Summers created Pepper's portrait for this stamp.

To create his scratchboard art, Mark Summers first covers a wax surface with black ink, then scratches off white lines until the image emerges.

D Joseph W. Stilwell

A lifetime U.S. Army officer, General Stilwell earned the nickname "Vinegar Joe" early on in his career. Best-known for his leadership during WWII, he spent a total of 10 years in China—including an arduous tour as military attaché to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. Artist Mark Summers created the general's portrait for this stamp.

D Edwin Powell Hubble

Hubble's remarkable observations led to the theory that the universe is expanding. Named in his honor, the Hubble Space Telescope (HST) has helped confirm, challenge and, in many cases, prompt the development of completely new astronomical theories. It is the largest and most complex astronomical observatory ever placed in orbit. The 18" x 24" poster includes five water-activated stamps photographed by the HST. The background image features enlarged pictures of spectacular nebulae against a photo of Edwin P. Hubble.

E American Glass

Featuring some of America's most beautiful glass creations, this pane of 20 stamps offers four designs highlighting popular American glassmaking processes—free-blown, mold-blown, pressed and art. Designer Richard Sheaff chose a 20th-century Tiffany window as selville.

F Louise Nevelson

Although born in Russia in 1899, Louise Nevelson has become one of 20th-century America's most important artists. She had her first solo exhibition at the age of 42 and her signature works were large, wall-like installations of stacked boxes. Within the boxes, she arranged pieces of moldings, balusters, and cut or carved wood pieces that were painted in black, white or gold. Ethel Kessler designed this striking pane of 20 stamps using details from five of Nevelson's sculptures. An Arnold Newman photograph of Nevelson adorns the selville.

Ethel Kessler knows about large and complex works of art firsthand. She designed a 200-panel poster display, in seven different languages, for the American Bicentennial celebration.

D U.S. Navy Submarines This 16-page prestige booklet highlights five stamp designs created to honor various periods in submarine technology and design. With an introduction by Edward L. Beach, Retired Captain, U.S. Navy, the booklet also features a short history of early underwater warfare, post-WWII submarine design and the significance of the prestigious Naval Dolphin Pin. Plus each page bears the story of at least one naval sub, with striking illustrations of battles and photographs of famous crewmen. Describing in detail the highs and lows of each vessel's most heroic voyages, every account is authenticated by high-ranking naval officers. Each stamp accurately portrays the unwavering strength of the U.S. Navy's fleet—from the first sub, called the Holland, to the nuclear-powered Los Angeles class attack subs, to the Ohio class, armed with Trident missiles. The 5.75" x 3.5" booklet—10 water-activated stamps (five designs)—was designed and art directed by Carl Herrman.

When artist Jim Griffiths is asked to do a portrait, he really dives into his work. A specialist in painting post-WWII U.S. naval vessels, his portrait of the aircraft carrier USS Abraham Lincoln hangs aboard the ship permanently.

A Adoption

In continuing its tradition of social awareness, the U.S. Postal Service spotlights the more than 100,000 children in the U.S. waiting to be adopted each year.

As an adopted child, Greg Berger relates to the important message of his stamp. As an artist, he's used fundamental shapes, bright colors and bold text to express hope and the emotional benefits adoption brings.

C Prostate Cancer Awareness

As the second-leading cause of cancer deaths in men, prostate cancer warrants attention. With his design, Michael Cronan heightens awareness of the importance of early detection.

D Philanthropy

As this page attests, philanthropy is still vital to the health of America. Due to an extended availability to our collectors, this exclusive commemorative stamp continues to promote the benefits of charitable contributions to our society.

F. Year of the Dragon

According to the Chinese zodiac, 2000 is the Year of the Dragon. Those born under this sign are likely to lead colorful lives and have many admirers.

Illustrator Clarence Lee was born in Hawaii to Chinese parents. He was first in his class at Yale's School of Art and Architecture in 1958.

G. Aquarium Fish

The bubbling tranquility of an aquarium comes through on four colorful stamp designs, illustrated by Teresa Fasolino. Even if you already own the real thing, you will enjoy the panoramic view of delicate corals, sea anemones, fish and other plant and animal species in this pane.

Cultivate your love of NATURE.

A Tropical Flowers

Bird of paradise, royal poinciana, gloriosa lily and Chinese hibiscus are beautifully illustrated by artist Steve Buchanan. Environmentally friendly, the four colorful designs are printed on 20% post-consumer waste stock with benign (100% recyclable) adhesive for this double-sided booklet of 20.

PACIFIC COAST RAIN FOREST

SECOND IN A SERIES

N A T U R E O F A M E R I C A

B Pacific Coast Rain Forest

The second ecosystem to be depicted in the Nature of America Series, the Pacific Coast Rain Forest is one of the largest temperate rain forests in the world. Painted by John D. Dawson, the stamp art includes 26 animal and plant species, and highlights the aquatic element of the rain forest.

Painter John D. Dawson is known for his meticulous attention to detail. He draws from extensive research, interviews and personal experience. Spending 18 hours at the drawing board helps, too!

SONORAN DESERT

FIRST IN A SERIES

N A T U R E O F A M E R I C A

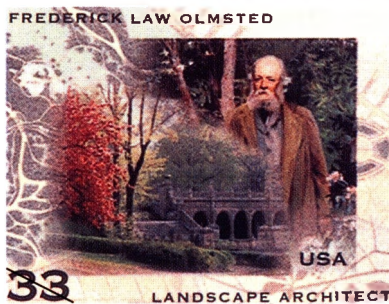

C Sonoran Desert

The first issue in the Nature of America Series, this pane depicts 25 animal and plant species that make their home in America's Sonoran Desert. Painted by John D. Dawson, the native plants and wildlife include the Banded Gecko, Desert Tortoise, Prickly Pear, Cactus Mouse and many others.

Painter John D. Dawson says it's a wildlife artist's dream to live in either the Rockies or Hawaii. Dawson has lived in both.

A All Aboard! 20th-Century Trains

One of the most beloved of American innovations, the railroad is brought vividly to life in this 20-stamp pane. Illustrated by Ted Rose, it features five renowned passenger trains from the 1930s and 1940s. Unparalleled in luxury, each train was created in the Art Deco style, both exterior and interior, by famous industrial designers.

CALIFORNIA GOLD RUSH 1849

C California Gold Rush

In 1849, thousands of entrepreneurs rushed to the foothills of the Sierra Nevada Mountains in California in hopes of "striking it rich." Using a pan and rocker, prospectors patiently mine a stream in this illustration by John Berkey and design by Howard Paine.

Designer Howard Paine is no stranger to life in the outdoors. His career includes decades of work for National Geographic magazine, as well as collaborations with astronauts, archaeologists, botanists and even volcanologists.

B American Samoa

With five beautiful islands and two coral atolls, American Samoa is one of the most breathtaking U.S. territories in the South Pacific. In April 1900, local Samoan chiefs ceded the first of the five islands, Tutuila and Aunuu, to the United States. Celebrating 100 years of political affiliation between the U.S. and American Samoa, we are proud to issue this picturesque stamp.

Enjoy the masters FOREVER.

F. James Cagney

On the 100th anniversary of his birth, James Cagney was honored in the Legends of Hollywood Series, with a stamp featuring a portrait by Thomas Blackshear. Cagney was one of Hollywood's top gangsters of the 1930s. His favorite character role, that of song-and-dance man George M. Cohan in the classic Yankee Doodle Dandy, adorns the selvage. It was this role that won Cagney the Academy Award for Best Actor.

Ordering is as easy as dialing
1 800 STAMP-24 (1 800 782-6724)

INDIVIDUAL ORDERS:

Just enter the six-digit item number in the space provided on the order form, along with the quantity.

Items that are available with plate positions will be identified in each individual listing.

To order a specific plate position, replace the sixth digit (0) with one of the numbers below:

- | | | |
|-----------------|----------------------|------------------------|
| 0 No preference | 3 Lower right | 6 Center left (bottom) |
| 1 Upper right | 4 Lower left | 7 Round-robin (4) |

If you don't replace the sixth digit, you'll automatically receive a random plate position.

CUSTOM ORDERS:

Custom orders are configurations other than those listed for each item and will result in a $3 shipping and handling charge. Requests for non-prepackaged items will incur a custom order fee. Booklets and self-adhesive coils are not available as custom orders. The first four digits of the item number plus "00" make the base number for custom orders (future reprint varieties will use the first four digits of the item number plus "01," "02," etc., depending on the sequence of variety).

If you need assistance with your custom order, please call 1 800 STAMP-24. Orders may be placed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. To speak with a Customer Service Representative, calls must be placed between 8 am and 4:30 pm, Monday through Friday CT.

PAYMENT: Payment may be made by credit card (DISCOVER®, VISA®, MasterCard®, American Express® Diners Club®), check, bank draft or a U.S. Postal Service Money Order made payable to USPS. Sending cash is not recommended, and done at your own risk. Stamps or stamped envelopes will not be accepted as payment. A $25 fee will be charged for any returned checks. We cannot accept any C.O.D. orders.

PRE-ORDERS: New issues should be ordered no more than two weeks in advance of the listed date of issue. Credit cards will be charged at the time of the pre-order. All orders for items not yet on sale will be placed on pre-order status, and will be sent out when all pre-ordered items are in stock. Items that are in stock on the same order will be sent out promptly. Certain products are not available for pre-orders. Please refer to specific products for pre-order information.

AVAILABILITY: All items listed in this catalog are subject to availability. Stamp Fulfillment Services (SFS) reserves the right to withdraw any item from sale without prior notice.

Stamps no longer available from the U.S. Postal Service may be purchased from stamp dealers on the secondary market.

UNDERPAYMENT: If payment is not sufficient, we will apply any available credit. If items must be deleted from your order, every effort will be made to avoid deleting items that will soon be off-sale.

OVERPAYMENT: Any overpayments or payments for items no longer available will be credited to your account and will appear on a printed invoice. Credit may be used in payment of future orders from Stamp Fulfillment Services or you may obtain a refund by calling Customer Relations.

EXCHANGES AND RETURNS: We always strive to deliver items of the highest quality. If you receive a damaged or flawed item, it may be returned for exchange or refund. Please complete the Merchandise Return and Replacement Order Form enclosed with your order within 30 days of receipt. Be sure to include a copy of your invoice/receipt. You must return the complete product for mint sets.

MISSING ORDERS: Any claim for an order that was paid for but not received within 90 days must include one of the following: (1) a copy of both sides of the cancelled check with the endorsement date on the back or (2) a photocopy of your credit card bill along with your philatelic identification number, if known.

CLAIMS: Any claims on fulfilled orders, or any requests for exchange of damaged items, should be submitted within 30 days of receipt to Customer Relations, PO Box 219424, Kansas City, MO 64121-9424. Or call 1 800 782-6724 (from outside the U.S., call 816-545-1000).

Commemorating the beginning of the year 2000, this celebratory image of a baby ringing in the New Year was created by legendary illustrator J.C. Leyendecker. It originally appeared on the cover of the January 2, 1937 issue of The Saturday Evening Post. Now you can celebrate this once-in-a-lifetime event with our Year 2000 stamp. Not shown, but also available, is the 2000 Commemorative First Day Cover Set. It contains one December 27, 1999 First Day of Issue cover featuring the Year 2000 stamp, and two commemorative covers postmarked December 31, 1999 and January 1, 2000, respectively.

The work of J.C. Leyendecker was a source of inspiration for noted American artist Norman Rockwell.

The gang's ALL here.

Cartoonist Chuck Jones created six "disciplines" for Wile E. Coyote and the Road Runner: the setting is always the American Southwest desert, the perspective is always that of the coyote, the audience remains sympathetic with him, the coyote is never injured by the Road Runner, the Road Runner never leaves the road, and there is never dialogue.

A. Wile E. Coyote and Road Runner

Wile E. Coyote has finally caught up to the Road Runner—on a stamp anyway. Ever since their debut in "Fast and Furry-ous," the dueling duo have been entertaining audiences both young and old with their attempts to outwit one another. Now they join the rest of the gang as the fourth issue in the Looney Tunes Series.

G Insects and Spiders Stampsaver Cards

Find out what makes these tiny creatures buzz, wriggle, and creep. Learn what a day in the life of a monarch caterpillar or a spinybacked spider is like. Each card has some really cool facts on each of your Insect and Spider stamps—and there's a spot to stick 'em. It's the perfect way to keep your bugs, without worrying that they'll crawl away.

H Xtreme Sports Stampsaver Cards

Keep the adrenaline flowin'! These 3 1/2" x 2 1/2" collector cards are the coolest way to keep your exciting Xtreme Sports stamps. Each of the four cards has some radical info on what makes skateboarding, snowboarding, BMX biking and inline skating totally gnarly, dude.

Deep Sea Creatures

In the dark, cold and deep recesses of the ocean live bizarre creatures rarely seen by those of us who live on dry land. This fascinating pane of 15 gives a glimpse at the denizens of an unknown underworld—the fanfin anglerfish, sea cucumber, fangtooth, amphipod and medusa.

A Legends of Baseball

For the first time, 20 of the brightest stars of the great American game have been teamed on an unbeatable pane of stamps. This special issue commemorates 20 superplayers who were selected for their heroic athleticism and stunning contributions to the game of baseball. Each was a nominee to the Major League Baseball All-Century Team: from Cy Young, who pitched 511 winning games, to Babe Ruth, who walloped 714 home runs. Also honored are two greats from the Negro Leagues, Josh Gibson and Satchel Paige. Hold this pane in your hands, and you can almost feel the wood of a bat, the leather of a hardball. Own the players who own the records.
